Savannah, GA – The Junior League of Savannah is proud to announce the Savannah Women in Business Networking + Panel, an empowering event celebrating female entrepreneurship and leadership in the local business community. This engaging evening of networking and discussion will take place on Thursday, March 6, 2025, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm at eMarie Nail Salon (1415 Abercorn St Unit C, Savannah, GA 31401). The event aims to connect and inspire women in business while raising funds to support the Junior League's community initiatives.

At the heart of the evening is a dynamic panel discussion featuring five accomplished Savannah business owners:

- Katie Rodgers-Hubbard – Founder of Lite Foot Company and Lite Foot Foundation, championing sustainability and social impact.
- Kimberly Watson – Owner of The Collective, a premier fitness studio specializing in yoga, Pilates, and cycling.
- Casey Tuggle – Attorney and founder of Casey Tuggle Law Firm, advocating for justice and community empowerment.
- Elizabeth Esparza – Owner of eMarie Nail Salon, a thriving business that blends beauty and wellness.
- Mahogany Bowers - Owner of the Y Bar, a premier event venue and studio located in the heart of downtown that offers space for connection and celebration.

Guests will have the opportunity to network beginning at 7:00 pm, followed by a 45-minute panel discussion at 7:30 pm, where these inspiring women will share their entrepreneurial journeys, challenges, and insights on business success.
