Friday, February 28, 2025

Savannah, GA – The Junior League of Savannah is proud to announce Touch a Truck, a fun-filled, family-friendly event designed to engage children with real-life trucks and vehicles. This exciting event will take place on Saturday, March 8, 2025, from 10 AM – 2 PM at Oglethorpe Mall and aims to raise funds for the Junior League of Savannah.

Touch a Truck provides a unique hands-on opportunity for kids to climb, explore, and interact with a variety of construction vehicles, emergency response units, farm equipment, and more! This year's event also coincides with the Coastal Georgia NAWIC (National Association of Women in Construction) chapter's celebration of National Women in Construction Week (March 2-8), highlighting the important role women play in the industry.

Event Details:

 What: Touch a Truck – A Family-Friendly Interactive Truck Experience

 When: Saturday, March 8, 2025 | 10 AM – 2 PM

 Where: Oglethorpe Mall, Savannah, GA

 Tickets: $25 per family up to 6 | $5 per single ticket | Kids 2 & under – FREE

 Who: Open to families, children, and community members

“We are thrilled to bring Touch a Truck to Savannah once again,” said Ansley Howze, President of the Junior League of Savannah. “This event is more than just a day of fun—it’s an opportunity to inspire young minds, celebrate our local heroes, and support the Junior League’s ongoing community focus of fostering education inside and out of the classroom in our community.”

The Junior League of Savannah invites all community members to join the fun and make an impact! Tickets are available now - purchase here. Stay updated on event details by following us on Facebook, and learn more about other events!
